

Meet John Maczynski, CEO

With over 38+ years of industry leadership spanning across 30 countries and over US$1 billion in BPO engagements, John Maczynski brings unparalleled expertise to PITON-Global. His executive experience includes 20 years as the Chief Customer Experience (CX) Officer and SVP of Global Business Development with the world's largest contact center, a stint as CRO with a BPO managed services leader, and an influential role with an early industry pioneer. As a client, John has also outsourced to 18 BPO partners, gaining unique perspectives on the process.

Having handled all aspects of the customer lifecycle, he exhibits an unsurpassed knowledge and understanding of all services, processes, technologies, and industry compliance requirements. John has successfully led outsourcing initiatives for numerous industry-leading mid-market and Fortune 500 corporations. His consultative approach sets him apart, challenging the "one-size-fits-all" norm prevalent in the BPO space and establishing him as a thought leader, industry expert, and client advocate.

Unrivaled Domain Expertise Across:

- Financial Services/Fintech
- Healthcare/Healthtech
- Insurance/Insurtech
- E-Commerce/Retailtech
- Technology/Techtech
- Telecommunication/Telcotech
- Information Services/Infotech
- Pharma/Biotech
- Life Sciences/Life Sciencetech

John's extensive experience in administering and responding to hundreds of BPO RFPs and selection processes enables him to discern meaningful differences between companies. His keen focus on aligning clients with suppliers tailored to their specific needs ensures well-informed decisions and long-lasting, successful partnerships.
